Issue No 283 – April 2022

Hi Everyone

What a great afternoon with Stu Roach on the 12th of April. Plenty of Neil Diamond songs and some great glam rock.

Many joined in by singing along, waving hands clapping and some dancing too!

HUMOUR SECTION

Always remember this: You do not stop laughing because you grow old.
You grow old when you stop laughing.

Police have confirmed that the man who fell from the 15th floor nightclub was not a bouncer.

I used to make sandcastles with my grandfather until my dad told me to put the urn back.

Newsflash! Someone has collapsed onto the luggage carousel at Heathrow. A spokesman said 'It's ok, they're slowly coming around.'

I fell and hit my head on a drum. I think I've got percussion.

Did you know that Dyson is the most well-known brand of Hoover?

I never thought that I would be the type of person to get up early in the morning to go running. I was right.

A SPOONFUL OF JULIE: AN AMAZING TRIBUTE TO JULIE ANDREWS. MY HEART AND SOUL ON A PLATE. SONGS, ANECDOTES AND SING-ALONGS FROM YOUR FAVOURITE JULIE THINGS.

Nicola Mills is performing at various dates and venues this year which can be found at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/a-spoonful-of-julie-tickets-267716255527>

The first one is at The Barlow in Edgworth on May 7th at 7.30pm. Tickets are available on her website at www.iamnicolamills.com

If you don't have access to the internet let Linda know and she can help you book.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

Jim and Maureen Hargreaves who are on your committee celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary on the 7th of April and on the 9th at Little Lever Cricket Club with their family and friends.

Rather than receive gifts they requested that everyone should donate to JIGSAW and they raised a fantastic £200.00.

Many thanks to them both.

We are entirely funded by donations and without fundraisers we would cease to exist. If you have any ideas to raise funds, please let any of the committee know.
